Section 9 – Privacy – Your Personal Information

We need to collect information about you in order to open and administer your savings account. The legal basis on which we process your data will be either that the processing is necessary for us to perform our contract with you or for taking steps prior to entering into it; necessary to comply with our legal obligations; in our legitimate business interests in relation to such purposes or with your consent.

If you make a joint application with your spouse, partner, family member or another party, we will also need to collect personal information about that person. If you make a joint application on behalf of the joint applicant, you agree to show them our Privacy Notice and that you have all necessary consents to enable you to provide us with their information.

The information we collect is used to verify your identity, administer your accounts, provide you with our services and to communicate with you about other products or services of ours that we think may be of interest to you.

When using your information we may also share information with anyone you appoint to administer or operate your account; regulatory and government bodies; auditors; any individuals/organisations that we use to provide services to us; and any other person or organisation if the law, public duty or our legitimate interests require us to do so.

We may send your details to credit reference agencies and/or fraud prevention agencies who will supply us with information for the purpose of verifying your identity, including information from the Electoral Register. We reserve the right to carry out further checks of your identity and address should we need to in order to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations. The credit reference agencies will record details of the search whether or not the application proceeds. The searches will not be seen or used by lenders to assess your ability to obtain credit. Credit searches and other information which is provided to us and/or the credit reference agencies or fraud prevention agencies about you and those with whom you are linked financially may be used by Bath Building Society and other companies if you, or other members of your household, apply for other facilities, including insurance applications and claims. This information may also be used for debt tracing and the prevention and detection of fraud or money laundering as well as the management of your account. Alternatively, we may ask you to provide physical forms of identification.

In making your application you acknowledge that you have received and read the summary of our Privacy Notice. Our full Privacy Notices are available on our website at www.bathbuildingsociety.co.uk

Section 10 – Agreement to Assign Windfalls to Charity

1. I/We agree with the Society that, if the right to any windfall benefits are granted to me/us after the account is opened, I/we will assign those windfall benefits to the Charities Aid Foundation unless the period between account opening and conversion announcement is more than five years. After five years I/we would receive the windfall benefits.
2. I/We authorise the Society and the successor to pass any windfall benefits directly to the Charities Aid Foundation without notice to me/us.
3. I/We understand that: i) The Society has promised to transfer to the Charities Aid Foundation the benefit of the agreement; ii) Neither the Society or the Charities Aid Foundation will release me/us from this agreement;
4. I/We authorise the Society to give the Charities Aid Foundation any information about me/us and the account I/we have with the Society (if they reasonably need it).

Section 11 – Execution Only Declaration

As your Trust Account is to be opened on a non-advised 'execution only' basis where no advice or assessments have been given to its suitability, it is important that you understand the terms and conditions of the account and how your account works. Please read the Key Product Information (KPI) document and the Welcome to your Bath Building Society Account brochure carefully to ensure that you understand how the product works. Copies of these documents will have been provided to you, and can be found on our website. If you have any doubts about the suitability or flexibility of the product, you should seek independent expert legal and/or financial advice before signing and submitting your application form.

I/We confirm that I/we have read and understood the Key Product Information (KPI) and terms and conditions of the Trust Account.

I/We understand that Bath Building Society are providing an execution-only service. I/We understand that we have not received advice or assessment on the suitability of the Trust Account by Bath Building Society.

I/We understand that Bath Building Society will hold the Trust funds and make payments by request as long as they are in keeping with the Trust Deed, Trust Will, the KPI and the terms and conditions of the Trust Account.
